

HUNGER IS NO GAME

Brown bag lunch panel on NJ's food assistance crisis

Friday, September 12 at Noon
JCC MetroWest, 760 Northfield Avenue, West Orange

To raise awareness about hunger in New Jersey, 11* New Jersey legislators and 21* community leaders are in the middle of the Food Stamp Challenge — a commitment to live on the state allocation of just $4.20 a day for food — for one week.

Join us at this panel lunch to:

- Hear from those taking the Challenge on what they are learning from this experience
- Become informed on what is happening nationally to help the growing number of hungry in America
- Learn what you can do to advocate for state and national legislation to help the hungry

Speakers:

NJ Senator Raymond Lesniak
 NJ Assemblywoman Mila Jasey
 Steve Gutow, Executive Director/CEO, Jewish Council for Public Affairs
 Diane Riley, Director of Advocacy, Community FoodBank of New Jersey
 Reuben Rotman, Executive Director, Jewish Family Service of MetroWest

Free and open to the public; RSVPs requested to crc@jfedgmw.org
