Hannah Arendt

A look at the life of the influential German-Jewish philosopher and political theorist Hannah Arendt, who reported for The New Yorker in 1961 on the war crimes trial of Adolf Eichmann. Using footage from the actual Eichmann trial and weaving a narrative that spans three countries, the film beautifully turns the often invisible passion for thought into immersive, dramatic cinema. (2013, English & German, 113 min.)

Barbara Wind, Director of the Holocaust Council of Greater MetroWest, will introduce the film and lead a follow-up discussion on the controversies surrounding Hannah Arendt.

Admission is free and all are invited.
Light refreshments will be served.

Two professional development credits will be awarded to educators
