THE MALCOLM C. GLUCKMAN LEADERSHIP AWARD

About the award

Malcolm C. Gluckman lost his brave struggle to a rare liver disease in 2002. Although he lived just 37 years, Malcolm's contributions to his family, friends and community were remarkable. By serving on many boards and donating generously, his passion and energy touched our community. The Malcolm C. Gluckman Leadership Award is intended to support leadership development in the greater Houston Jewish Community.

ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM

One or more scholarships of at least $1,000 each will be awarded by Jerome Robinson Family Young Adult Division of The Jewish Federation of Greater Houston ("YAD") to first time attendees of the AIPAC Washington Policy Conference. This year's conference will be held March 1, 2015 through March 3, 2015. Applications to be submitted by December 22, 2014 by midnight to YAD, Attn: Lisa Stanton, 5603 South Braeswood Boulevard, Houston Texas, 77096 or faxed to 713- 721-6232 or e-mailed to lstanton@houstonjewish.org. Distributions and reimbursements to the award recipient(s) shall be at the discretion of the Foundation and are intended, but not limited to registration, meals, lodging and transportation. All requests for reimbursements must be accompanied by corresponding receipts.

Applicant Requirements:

Applicants- must be Jewish residents of Houston, Texas, between the ages of 21-35, active in the Houston Jewish community, with a desire to be an advocate for the State of Israel through leadership efforts. Previous leadership roles are considered a plus.

What is your involvement in the Houston Jewish Community?

Have you been to Israel, and if so, when did you go, and for how long did you visit?

What motivated you to visit Israel?

Are you affiliated with a Synagogue? If so, please list.

Please state why you would like to attend the AIPAC Washington Policy Conference:

Thinking about how the policy conference will impact you, upon your return, how will you apply your experience and convert that experience into action in the community?

If you have any recommendation letters, please attach copies.

I acknowledge that if awarded a scholarship, I will continue to be involved in the Houston Jewish Community after my return from the conference.

I will also be available to meet with a YAD representative or Malcolm C. Gluckman Foundation Board member, to provide feedback on this experience if requested to do so.
