2009 NORC's ANNUAL MEETING

UNITED JEWISH COMMUNITIES
MARCH 22-24, 2009
BALTIMORE, MARYLAND
WHO WE ARE

• 90% of baby boomers are aging in place
• People are living longer than ever before
• Our society has a greater number of older adults than ever before
WHY ARE WE HERE?

- The Jewish community is aging at twice the National rate and our service providers are expending greater resources on meeting older adults needs. As a consequence we are looking for innovative ways to improve service delivery and increase

- NORC Demonstration Project
The Program

- Trends
- Programmatic Themes
- Program Evaluation
- Public Policy
Goals of the conference

- Network
- Learn
- Share
- Challenge
- Develop
- Inspire
Day 1: Setting the Stage

- Community Introductions and Highlights
- Trends, Impacts and Implications
Day 2 – Nuts and Bolts in Implementation

- Sustainability
- Implementation
- Public Policy

Setting the Stage

Goals of the conference

Evaluating and Planning Ahead

Nuts and Bolts

United Jewish Communities
The Federations of North America
Day 3: Evaluating Our Work and Planning Ahead

- Day 3
  - Evaluation and the relationship to public policy
  - Local Evaluation
  - Public policy and the NORC program